Meet Lisette...

...single mother of two, cheerleader, confidante, best friend, unsung superhero of her family. One of her boy diagnosed with Autism Spectrum Disorder. He has been receiving services at BVRC for a few years now. For Ed in the Brazos Valley outside of BVRC; Lisette's journey is one many of us would rather not ever have to take: "M old with autism. Not only as a mother but as a single mother hearing the diagnosis was heart breaking, about autism. Doctor had originally referred me somewhere else but I asked to go to BVRC instead becau we did. Edan is now 6. He has learned more at BVRC than at school. He looks forward to therapy and has from physical therapy thanks to the PT staff. He is learning to communicate thanks to Speech therap learning how to perform activities required in daily life thanks to OT therapist, Mary. BVRC has held my h from day 1. All therapists mentioned above have taught me how to do therapy at home and how to h forever changing. The social worker, Martha, has researched and worked tirelessly for my family to get th sources. She always finds a way and goes above and beyond. Alina has shown and given all my family always been open for any questions or concerns I've had. Last but not least, Gracie too is always ready to

Lisette's story is just one of the many miracles we see at BVRC every day. Kids like Edan would be left On behalf of Edan and Lisette and all the sweet little people we serve every day, thank you for your supp
